7 OCT 1981

Mr William J. Casey
Director, Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr Casey

During the period 9-11 September 1981, an eight man Mobile Training Team from the Interservice Nuclear Weapons School presented briefings concerning the National Nuclear Weapons Program at the Central Intelligence Agency. The team reported that the trip was extremely successful in large part to the outstanding support provided by personnel of your staff.

A special thanks and deep appreciation are extended to [redacted] Office of Training and Education who provided exemplary support and demonstrated outstanding initiative in coordinating the myriad of administrative and security details necessary to the success of the program, both prior to the team's arrival and during the program. The dedication and professionalism she demonstrated are qualities that can be emulated by government employees at all levels.

STAT

Additionally, [redacted] Office of Training and Education, and [redacted] and [redacted] Office of Logistics, are also to be commended for the outstanding support and cooperation extended to the personnel of my staff. The success of the briefing program is equally the result of their effort and should be acknowledged accordingly.

STAT

Sincerely

FRANCIS M. GULLICK, Lt Col, USAF
Commander
